Keep Satelite Radio like it is. I pay for it, therefore I should be entitled to receive what ever they decide to broadcast and any content that they broadcast.

I no longer listen to FM Radio since Satelite Radio came to be. I pay for this service because I do not like commercials and I also have a much broader selection of listening choices.

Marshall